PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 17 You shall undergo a substance abuse evaluation and, if indicated, enter into and successfully complete an approved substance abuse treatment program, including aftercare. You shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising probation officer and treatment provider.
- 18 You shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to urinalysis testing, as directed by the supervising probation officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.
- 19 You shall provide verification of all prescribed medications to your supervising probation officer. You shall allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising probation officer and treatment provider.

CAUSE

According to the Yakima Police Department narrative report, on August 24, 2005, Ms. Hull submitted a prescription to Rosauers Pharmacy that had been altered. The ink was a different color on the number "1" of Percocet and Robaxin from 60 to 160. According to the police report, the pharmacy made contact with Ms. Hull's doctor who confirmed the prescription was written for 60 on both. The doctor then requested the prescription not be filled.

The police officer made contact with Ms. Hull regarding the altered prescription to which she stated she had no idea how the number was changed nor did she have knowledge of who did. Ms. Hull further stated the prescription had been written for a greater quantity in the past and she is currently reducing her daily use. She also indicated that she has been taking this medication for several months for a lingering injury.
